

NEWSLETTER No . 16 : 4th June, 2015

Dear Parents,

How busy are households in the morning! Getting everyone out of bed can be a task in itself and then comes finding the clothes they are to wear that day, the things they need to take with them to fulfil the requirements of that day's routine and then, breakfast! Thankfully, all these pre-breakfast chores are predictable, even repetitive. Imagine being the White Queen in "Alice Through the Looking Glass", who made it a practice to believe six impossible things before breakfast!

One "impossible" for Christian people is understanding the Trinity. However, it is especially important to have some understanding of the Trinity because it is central to our faith. "Trinity is the Christian name for God." Karl Barth. The understanding of the Trinity stresses that The Creator or Father has come near to us in human form in Jesus and lives in us in the Holy Spirit.

In the "civilizations" of Greece and Rome, no one would have dreamed that leaders should in any way be servants. Indeed, Aristotle argued that the poor and the underprivileged should be kept well and truly in slavery, so that "superior men" would have leisure to think and participate in the governance of the community. Aristotle cherished the "great-souled man" who was proud, honourable, aristocratic and rich. The job of the leader was to stay above the common people and lead.

But Jesus invented the notion that the way to lead is by serving the needs of others, especially those who are the most needy: "Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant for even the Son of man did not come to be served but to serve." Mark 10 : 43. Jesus was born in a stable and lived most of His life as a carpenter's apprentice. Usually, He travelled by foot, His first disciples were fishermen and craftsmen and He lived and moved among the common people.

Jesus broke the taboos. From society's point of view, and even from some of His male disciples point of view, Jesus scandalously permitted women, even women who were outcasts because of their lifestyle, to travel with Him and to be part of His circle of friends and confidants. "The Christian prohibition of adultery, viewed as equally serious for men and women, placed a moral leash on the universal double standard that commanded women to behave themselves while men did as they pleased." Dinesh D'Sousa.

The message through Jesus is that, in God's eyes, all people are of equal importance and we are to love ourselves and others, as God loves us. We are to do this because, "God has poured out His love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit whom He has given us." Rom. 5 : 5. And, of course, the Spirit produces, "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, humility and self-control." Gal. 5 : 22,23. These are additional gifts to assist us to carry on the message as Christians, the Christs of our time. St Paul had a great insight into the Trinity, when he gave this blessing to the people of Corinth;

"May the grace of the Lord, Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all." And may Paul's blessing be with us all, this very day.

Peace & Best Wishes

CHILDREN'S CHATTER MATTERS

On long car trips you might like to play build a story, where each person adds a new part in turn.

Make sure you include the following important parts;

A setting: 'who' the story is about, 'where' the story is taking place and 'when' the story is taking place,

A problem which arises in the story or a kick off event

Feelings: how the character feels about the problem,

A solution to the problem and an ending.

You can make it as humorous or far fetched as you like, most importantly it has to be fun!

GRIEF AND LOSS PROGRAM

Dear Parents/caregiver

This term I plan to run Seasons for Growth, a grief and loss program within our school. Seasons for Growth is based on the belief that change, loss and grief are a normal and valuable part of life. We examine the impact of changes such as death, separation and divorce upon our lives, and explore how we can learn to live with and grow from these expectations.

The core intentions of this program are the development of resilience and emotional literacy to promote social and emotional wellbeing. The program is educational in nature and does not provide therapy.

We use the imagery of the four seasons to illustrate that grief is cyclical, not a linear journey with a clear end. Peer support is a key element of the program, and confidentiality is strongly emphasised.

The program runs for approximately one hour (withdrawal from class) for eight weeks. If you may be interested in your child/children participating in this program, please return the attached 'expression of interest' form to the office.

Please note that this program will only run subject to numbers.

I give permission for my son/daughter (name)..... to participate in the Seasons for Growth Program at Holy Rosary School Heathcote.
